Feb 2nd 1908 Dear Elsie I'm cold at your house to day mind blooming here at about 60 miles an hour. how are you all? hasn't enough rights for a letter so thought I would send postal to let you know I haven't frozen to death in this cold snap. have been cold for over a week. last sun. lots of snow. to day scarcely any. rained nearly all day yesterday. hope you all keep well. we are all right well now. Mary had gripe but is all right.
 now. I'll send you a card or something. Lovingly your Aunt Ella
